Focus on the Future – TOGETHER! For Healthy Communities

April 24–27, 2017

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

Focus on the Future – TOGETHER! The name says a lot. Since the first Focus on the Future conference in 2007, hundreds of compelling speakers – experts from across the country and around the world – and thousands of attendees have shared knowledge, experience, and a vision of strong community health programs around problem gambling and addiction. Focus on the Future has also provided the opportunity to partner with other community health focused organizations, agencies, schools and universities, and more. We are honored to partner this year with TOGETHER!, whose vision is to ensure that all young people are supported, healthy, safe, and valued. In fact, we believe that partnerships are the cornerstone for building strong, sustainable, community health programs that achieve long-term change. Sustainability includes the capacity to take on new issues as they emerge. In the real world, problem gambling programs and services cannot exist in a silo. Neither can programs and services for other addictions or for mental health and behavioral health issues.

Focus on the Future – TOGETHER! will combine the best of the annual conferences both our organizations have offered over the years to provide valuable insights on the tools and resources available for effective treatment, prevention, and community engagement, as well as offering information on trends and innovative topics in gambling, gaming, community resiliency, advocacy, issues around opioids, tobacco, and marijuana, internet addiction, therapeutic justice, homelessness, and community service models.

All of us at the Evergreen Council on Problem Gambling and TOGETHER! thank all of you who make such an important difference in our diverse communities to provide support and services and work toward community engagement to increase awareness of and develop prevention models around addictions, violence, homelessness, and more. As individuals and organizations, we bring diverse skills and experience to the table to share. We also share a vision of making our communities healthier places to live. We can achieve this vision; this Focus on the Future – TOGETHER!

Brad Owen, Honorary Chair
Former Washington State Lieutenant Governor, Retired

CONFERENCE COORDINATOR

Evergreen Council on Problem Gambling (ECPG) provides treatment, training, and awareness programs and services around problem and responsible gambling issues. We provide confidential support for those affected by gambling disorders through our 24-hour Problem Gambling Helpline; and public awareness, education, prevention, and resource development services for individuals, families, employers, students, the gaming industry, and business and community groups. ECPG also provides training and certification programs and continuing education units (CEUs) for treatment professionals.

Gambling is a personal choice. And for the majority of residents in the Pacific Northwest, gambling is a source of fun, recreation, and entertainment. But for some, gambling can become a serious problem that leads to broken marriages and relationships, bankruptcy, depression, or even suicide. If you or someone you love struggles with a gambling problem, there is hope. Help starts today by calling 800.547.6133.

CONFERENCE PARTNER

TOGETHER!

TOGETHER! is a nonprofit organization founded in 1989 to serve youth and families in the South Sound with a mission to advance the health and well-being of all young people. We offer direct service youth programs, mobilize communities through coalitions, advocate for healthier laws, norms, and systems, and promote health through community and individual education. For nearly 30 years, TOGETHER!'s strategic investment in programs, services, and partnerships at the cutting edge of youth development consistently produce proven results in youth health, safety, and success. We have worked to achieve our mission and vision by living our values. We value equity; we believe that all people deserve social, health and educational equity. Mobilization; we partner and mobilize families, schools, and the community to solve community problems. And systems change; using data to lead and support change across sectors to serve the needs of the whole child.

PRE-CONFERENCE WORKSHOPS

MONDAY, APRIL 24

Liz Davis, Schelli Slaughter, and Jon Tunheim
Exploring the NEAR Sciences/ Hope Science

Learn about the latest research and delve into complex issues, including how an individual's experiences can affect brain development, gene expression, physical and behavioral health, and much more.

Liz Wilhelm, MS
Ethics in Prevention: A Decision-Making Process for Human Services Professionals

Ethics in Prevention describes the six principles in the Prevention Code of Ethics, illustrated by realistic examples designed to enhance understanding of each principle. This training also introduces a decision-making process designed to actively apply this code to a variety of ethical dilemmas.

Derek Franklin, MA
Positive Community Norms in Practice: Preventing Addiction at the Community Level

Learn about the Positive Community Norms (PCN) intervention framework and how it applies The Science of the Positive to prevent addiction and advance individual and community health and wellbeing. Hear from practitioners using the model and science, learn from their experience, and engage in interactive discussions about practical application in your community.

Lauren Davis
Recovery Advocacy Training to Support Crucial Programs and Services in Washington

This training will prepare individuals who are passionate about substance abuse and mental health recovery and suicide prevention to be effective advocates for change in the state legislature and to change public discourse by engaging with the media.

James Von Busch
Ethics for Treatment Providers

This session will review the current literature regarding new ethical dilemmas related to technology and the Internet, and provide guidance and recommendations for both counselors and clinical supervisors. Topics include: the use of social networking websites by clinical supervisors, counselors, and clients; emailing clients; conducting internet searches on clients and/or supervisees; and conducting client consultations online.

TUESDAY, APRIL 25

Connie Fisher, BS and Jen Bankard, BS
Youth Mental Health First Aid

Youth Mental Health First Aid™ (YMHFA) teaches adults how to identify and help youth who may be experiencing a mental health crisis and/or exhibiting at-risk behavior that could lead to a crisis. YMHFA is an evidence based, research proven 8-hour course that helps identify, understand, and respond to signs of mental illnesses and addictions in youth ages 12-18.

Elaine Miller-Karas, LCSW
The Community Resiliency Model: Building Resilience to Trauma

The Community Resiliency Model (CRM) is a wellness and prevention program that provides a biological perspective to common human reactions, which occur with stress and trauma. CRM is a set of six wellness skills that reset the natural balance of the nervous system. This workshop will share the key concepts of CRM.

James Von Busch
ASAM: Criteria Changes, Integration, and Responses to Trauma

This training will highlight the changes to the DSM-5 definition of addiction-related disorders and ASAM criteria based on latest empirical research. Revisions and updates that will impact changes to ASAM Criteria as it relates to assessment, individual service planning, course of treatment, and discharge planning will be explored, as well as referral for continued services.

Lanessa Inman and Michelle Ryder
Diversity and Inclusion - Building a Foundation for Equitable Services

This workshop will explore the intercultural competency spectrum by engaging in hands-on, culturally relevant professional and personal development. Differences such as race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, class, language, abilities, and how those differences are navigated and stratified in our society, are closely linked to a range of social and health outcomes.

Lunch Plenary

Health Care Reform

Panel Discussion: David Dickinson, MaryAnne Lindeblad, BSN, MPH, and Cassie Undlin

Healthcare Reform in the United States has a long history of steps forward and back. Of course, one of the most sweeping changes, and still most controversial, was the passage of the Affordable Care Act in 2010. Will it be repealed and replaced under a new Administration? Will Reforming Healthcare Reform resolve our healthcare debates? What will changes mean to our state health systems, to Federal policies, and to collaborative efforts between nonprofit, private, and public health staff working to make healthcare more accessible and more affordable? What do possible changes mean for integrating physical and behavioral healthcare programs? What do they mean for quality of care?

Afternoon Breakout Sessions

- Taurell Reboulet, MA, LMHCA, Erin Honseler, and Amber Tejada
LGBTQ Safe Spaces: Culture and Community Support
- Hilarie Cash, PhD, Cosette Rae, and Cam Adair

The State of Children and Youth 2016 - Opportunities and Gaps

THURSDAY, APRIL 27

Morning Keynote

Michael Bricker, MS, CADC-II, LPC

"What's Love Got to Do With It? - Addiction, Attachment, and the 13th Step"

Counselors are well aware of the dangers of "treatment romance" and the phenomenon of "13th-stepping" at fellowship meetings, but may not be familiar with the science to back up their cautionary advice. The growing attention to the neurobiology of substance-related and addictive disorders in the past decade has brought focus to attachment theory as one lens through which to view addiction. Unstable attachment in early childhood can lead to early onset of substance use, early initiation of sexual activity, sequential intense but unstable relationships, and romantic entanglements in early sobriety which often lead to relapse. This session will provide a basic understanding of attachment as one important facet of addiction and recovery, and discuss its impact on "process addictions" and emotional relapse prevention.

Morning Breakout Sessions

- Jim Leingang, BA, CDP, WSCGC-II
Problem Gambling Continuum of Care
- Chris Stearns, Taurell Reboulet, MA, LMHCA
Evolution of eSports: Is Interactive Gaming the New Normal?
